

1. The first group of variables includes the variables that are used in the first stage of the model. These variables are the variables that are used to explain the dependent variable in the first stage of the model. The variables in this group are the variables that are used to explain the dependent variable in the first stage of the model.

Sumesh Kaushal Ph.D.

1636

[illegible]

Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner

[illegible]